Assets do not include essential household goods such as furniture, appliances, dishes and clothing.

The Board of Review will not reduce the value of the assets by the amounts of any indebtedness otherwise owed by the applicant.

If the applicant meets these eligibility requirements, the applicant will be entitled to a poverty exemption as long as the applicant complies with the remaining requirements and procedures as set forth in these guidelines.

(3) Application. To apply for the poverty exemption, a person shall do all the following on an annual basis:

- (a) File a Hardship Exemption Application with the Assessor or Board of Review. Applicants must obtain the application from the Assessor's Office. Handicapped or infirmed applicants may call the Assessor's office to make necessary arrangements for assistance.
- (b) Submit copies of federal and state income tax returns for all person residing in the principal residence, including any property tax credit returns, filed in the immediately preceding year or in the current year. All occupants not required to file income tax returns must submit a completed form 4988, Poverty Exemption Affidavit, found in this packet.
- (c) Produce a valid driver's license or other form of identification.
- (d) Produce a deed, land contract, or other evidence of ownership of the property for which an exemption is requested, if such proof of ownership is requested by the Board of Review.
- (e) Provide evidence of other assets including investments, real property, and retirement accounts.

(4) Deadline. The application must be submitted after January 1, but before the day prior to the last day of the Board of Review.

(5) Appearance Before the Board of Review. The applicant, or a representative of the applicant, will be required to appear before the Board of Review to respond to any questions that the Board of Review or Assessor may have concerning the exemption application.

- (a) An applicant may be called to appear before the Board on short notice.
- (b) An applicant may have to answer questions regarding the applicant's financial affairs, health, or the status of people living in the applicant's home before the Board at a meeting that is open to and will be attended by the public.
- (c) Applicants appearing before the Board may be administered an oath as follows:

"Do you , _____ ,swear and affirm that the evidence and testimony you will give in your own behalf before the Board of Review is the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you?"

- (d) The assessor may tape record and will keep minutes of all proceedings before the Board of Review.
 - (e) If called to appear before the Board, physically challenged or infirmed applicants may call the Assessor's Office to make necessary arrangements for assistance.
 - (f) The Board of Review may, in its discretion, review poverty exemption applicants without the applicant or the applicants' representative being physically present.
- (6) Evaluation of Application Applications for poverty exemptions will be evaluated based on information submitted to the Board of Review by the applicant, testimony taken from the applicant, and information gathered by the Board from any source.
- (a) The Board of Review is not required to grant a poverty exemption for property owned by multiple owners as long as at least one owner is not eligible for the poverty exemption.
 - (b) The Board of Review may conduct an investigation to verify the information submitted or statements made to the Assessor or Board of Review in regard to the applicant's poverty exemption claim.
 - (c) The Board of Review may not deny a poverty exemption based upon mere speculation regarding the level of an applicant's income or assets.
 - (d) A poverty exemption, if granted, shall remain in effect for one year and an applicant's eligibility for the poverty exemption shall be determined each year.
 - (e) The Board of Review may not determine an applicant's eligibility for the poverty exemption based on the number of years that the applicant has been granted a poverty exemption in the past, or the number of years that the applicant may be granted a poverty exemption in the future.
- (7) Applicants found to qualify for a Poverty Exemption under both the income and assets guidelines are eligible for a reduction of their Taxable Value for the current year in the amount of 100%, as approved by the Cascade Charter Township Board in March 2021, in compliance with PA 253 of 2020.

MCL 211.7u Poverty Exemption Taxpayer Fact Sheet

MCL 211.7u provides for a property tax exemption, in whole or part, for the principal residence of persons who, by reason of poverty, are unable to contribute to the public charges. For purposes of the poverty exemption, the term “principal residence” means how principal residence exemption and qualified agricultural property are defined in MCL 211.7dd. The exemption does not apply to property of a corporation. This Taxpayer Fact Sheet includes updates made to MCL 211.7u by Public Act 253 of 2020.

How To Apply For The Poverty Exemption

To request a poverty exemption, a taxpayer must file:

1. Form 5737 Application for MCL 211.7u Poverty Exemption
2. Form 5739 Affirmation of Ownership and Occupancy to Remain Exempt by Reason of Poverty
3. All required additional documentation (such as federal/state income tax returns)

Forms 5737 and 5739, along with any additional documentation, must be filed with the local assessing unit where the property is located. Do not file these forms with the Department of Treasury or the State Tax Commission. The forms may be submitted to the local assessing unit on or after January 1 but before the day prior to the last day of the December Board of Review during the year in which the exemption is requested.

Taxpayers should contact the local assessing unit directly to verify deadline dates for submission of the forms to ensure the application gets reviewed by a Board of Review during that calendar year.

In addition to filing Forms 5737 and 5739 and any supporting documentation, a taxpayer must do all the following to be eligible for the poverty exemption:

1. Own and occupy the property as a principal residence.
2. Provide federal and state income tax returns for the current or immediately preceding year, including any property tax credits, for all persons residing in the principal residence (disclosure of the income of an owner who is not residing in the principal residence is not required). Federal and state income tax returns are not required for a person residing in the principal residence if that person was not required to file a federal or state income tax return. Instead, Form 4988, Poverty Exemption Affidavit may be filed for all persons residing in the residence who were not required to file federal or state income tax returns in the current or immediately preceding year.

3. Produce a valid driver license or other form of identification, if requested.
4. Produce a deed, land contract, or other evidence of ownership of the property, if requested.
5. Meet the federal poverty guidelines published in the prior calendar year in the Federal Register by the United States Department of Health and Human Services or alternative guidelines adopted by the local assessing unit. The alternative guidelines cannot provide income eligibility requirements less than the federal guidelines.
6. Meet the asset level test adopted by the local assessing unit.

Appeal Rights

An appeal of a decision of the March Board of Review is made by completing and submitting a petition to the Michigan Tax Tribunal no later than July 31 of the same year. A decision of the July or December Board of Review may be appealed by completing and submitting a petition to the Michigan Tax Tribunal within 35 days of the July or December Board of Review's decision. More information on how to file an appeal is available by contacting the Michigan Tax Tribunal. Information can also be viewed on the Michigan Tax Tribunal's website at <https://www.michigan.gov/taxtribunal>.
